Sadie Mae Hawks Becomes Mrs. Ronald D. Chambers

A ballerina-length gown of white organza was chosen by Miss Sadie Mae Hawks for her marriage Friday evening in First Baptist Church to Mr. Ronald Dean Chambers.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father, also wore a fingertip veil of nylon illusion draped from a coronet of the same material. A single strand of pearls completed her costume and she carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids surrounded by matching gladioli.

The new Mrs. Chambers is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson P. Hawks of 2318 W. 237th street and her bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Merle L. Chambers of 2410 Arlington avenue.

Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony performed in the presence of 100 wedding guests. A reception followed in the church parlors.

Miss Betty Hawks as her sister's maid of honor, wore a ballerina model of yellow organza and her flowers were yellow and white carnations.

Miss Evelyn Spaan served as guest registrar.

David Daugherty attended the bridegroom as best man and ushering were Wayne Scholl and Dick Carroll.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Emily Burchfield, accompanied by the church organist, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee Truly."

Assisting with reception arrangements were the Misses Janet Lewellen, Ruth Harris and Claudette Merkel.

Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Chambers left for a honeymoon at an undisclosed destination. They will live in Santa Maria.

Mrs. Chambers received her diploma from Torrance High School with the class of June '51 and her husband graduated from the same school the previous year.

Bowl Concert
